Allocation, Revision, or Transfer

29th Congress of Graduate Students

Bill #: 11

Sponsored by: Representative Hirsch

Date: May 21, 2021

Amount: $6,800

From (account name): COGS Unallocated

To (account name): FSU Childcare

Purpose & Description: FSU Childcare would like to request $6,800 dollars for the purchase disinfecting supplies, specialized toys and supplies for children with exceptional needs and outdoor toys and equipment for the Childcare center.

The program's request addresses two categories of need: response to COVID-19 and children with exceptional needs. Working with children under 5 years old and who are unable to be vaccinated for COVID-19 requires the program to take every precaution in its response to COVID-19. The program is requesting $2,400 in disinfecting supplies such as disinfecting wipes and spray and hand sanitizer to reduce the spread of COVID-19 in the center among infants, children, student teachers and staff. Funds, in the amount of $2,200, for outdoor toys and equipment is being requested to create outdoor classrooms that will allow children to socially distance in a natural and well-ventilated environment. The program continues to increase the quality of services for children with exceptional needs. Funds in the amount of $2,200 is being requested to purchase specialized toys and equipment to assist these children in meeting their fullest potential.

Itemized Expenditures:
