- Bill #15: Indian Student Association Holi Event

■ Speaker Rowan:

This bill is sponsored by Representative Guerra.

Representative Guerra: The Indian Students Association (INSAT) at Florida State University is dedicated to preserving and promoting the rich and diverse Indian culture on campus through various individual and group activities. By fostering an environment that celebrates India's traditions, arts, and values, INSAT provides a space for students to connect with their heritage and share it with the larger FSU community. The association also supports incoming Indian students by offering a welcoming and inclusive network to help them transition smoothly to life at FSU. Through mentorship, cultural events, and social gatherings, INSAT ensures that new students have the resources and connections they need to thrive academically and socially. INSAT will host Holi 2025, the Festival of Colors, with a vibrant afternoon of joy, music, and community. Rooted in Indian tradition, Holi marks the arrival of spring with a dazzling display of colors, symbolizing love, unity, and new beginnings. The FSU student community is invited to celebrate through lively music, festive energy, and the tradition of playing with colors. The event will also feature a specially curated selection of Indian cuisine, catered by Persis Indian Grill. Holi 2025 will take place at FSU Lakefront Park & Retreat Center on March 23, 2025, from 11 AM - 3 PM, with an estimated 500 attendees. The event has already been promoted at the International Bazaar, organized by CGE, and will continue to be shared widely through Instagram, Facebook, and GroupMe. The event is free and open to all FSU students, with no charge for non-students to attend.; has 515 active members, we have run out of food

33rd Congress of Graduate Students Legislation Cover Sheet

COGS Bill/Resolution #: 17

Sponsor(s): Speaker Rowan

Short Title: A Bill Allocating Funds for the LGA's "Little Things" Exhibition

Summary of Legislation:

The bill allocates $182 in Food for the League of Graduate Artists' "Little Things" Exhibition on May 2nd, 2025, from 4-7pm at the Carnaghi Arts Building.

Background Information:

The event showcases BA works at specified scale cap-stoning end of semester. This will be occurring on May 2nd, 2025. This will coincide with the end of the semester, enabling an opportunity for families to see their children's work over the course of their studies at FSU.

Guests who have never been in the Carnaghi Arts building will have the ability to see our facilities and engage with other members of the arts community. LGA will be providing complimentary food and beverages available for guests to encourage more visitors to the space.

The event is being advertised through social media, posters, and word of mouth.

Effect of Proposed Legislation:

Passage of the bill allocates $182 in Food to the League of Graduate Artists' "Little Things" Exhibition on May 2nd, 2025, from 4-7pm at the Carnaghi Arts Building.
