

Third Annual Re-envisioning Elder Care Conference

September 9, 2022
In-person & Virtual

National leaders will address the following topics:

- Update on Treatment of Depression in Older Adults
- Optimal Staffing in Nursing Homes: How Much is Enough?
- Systemic Racism in Long-Term Care
- Caregiver Burnout Related to Dementia Care
- Assuring Care for Medicare Beneficiaries Through Advocacy and Legislation
- Response to the Newly Released National Imperative to Improve Nursing Home Quality

Click Here to Register Today

Conference registration is free with a small fee for continuing education credits for medical doctors, physician assistants, registered nurses, physical therapists, and social workers. More information on continuing education credits coming soon.

Learn more by visiting our website or email connect.reach@med.fsu.edu for updates.

Sponsorship opportunities available.

NSU Florida

Proudly presented by the Geriatrics Workforce Enhancement Programs at Florida State and Nova Southeastern Universities